

Archive of Black History and Culture Community Advisory Committee Recruitment

Facilitated by the Local History & Genealogy Division

Are you interested in documenting, preserving, and improving access to local Black history collections?

If so, the Archive of Black History and Culture is looking to recruit talented individuals to serve on the Community Advisory Committee. As part of serving on the committee you will be asked to serve on one of three sub committees:

- 1) Grants and Funding
- 2) Outreach, Events and Programs
- 3) Archives and Special Collections

Along with two secretaries, this committee will be comprised of community members from different backgrounds, with various skillsets, dedicated to advancing the efforts of the archive. If you are interested in serving on the Community Advisory Committee, please contact us today!

For all questions, and to submit your resume,
